Booking the viewing space

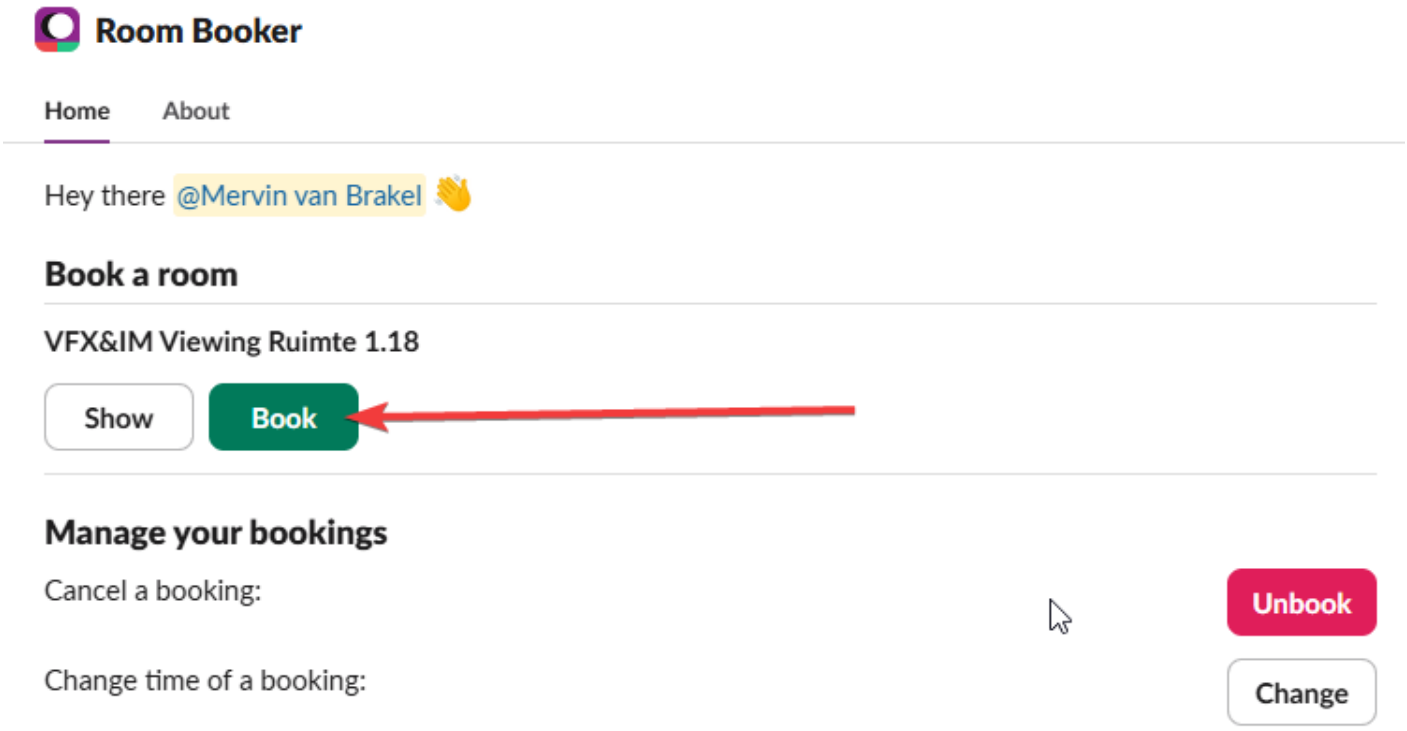

Next to the door of the viewing space you'll find a small screen that displays the booking information for today:

You can make a reservation through our Slack using the Room Booker bot. Search for it in the top bar and click on it:

Click book to open the booking menu, there you can fill in the required information!

> Please check if AM/PM is correct on your booking time. Slack doesn't have 24 hour time options so you might accidentally book in the middle of the night instead of during the day!
